Moxie

Karen Fabbri admits that "excellent shopping skills" and a "fetish for shoes" were her only retail sales-related qualifications when she opened her shoe store. The former high-tech PR exec turned successful retailer stocks Moxie with impressive designer labels, such as HollyWould, Walter Steiger, Isaac by Isaac Mizrahi, Cynthia Rowley, and Claudia Ciuti, and says she aims for a balance "between flirty and practical" when hand-picking the soles to sell. "Customers are always thanking me for bringing sexy shoes to Boston," says Fabbri. "It doesn't matter what your hair looks like or whether you put your makeup on—if your shoes look great, it changes your whole attitude." 73 Charles St., 617-557-9991
