women's pants, jackets and much more. Mixed among the hippest of hipster garb you'll also find antiques, shoes, rugs, lamps, dinnerware and memorabilia, along with hand-painted furniture, pottery and jewelry. All items are selected by co-owners Mara Kustra and Collene Covey, who opened the store less than a year ago. If there's something special you must have, the two will even scour flea markets and estate sales to find it for you. Absolutely cool.
